10 October: French for Beginners (Französisch für Anfänger)
This 2006 film tells the story of Henrik, who takes part in a student exchange program with France in order to capture the heart of his dream girl. Wild parties, exciting trips, a crazy host family and of course his trouble with the French language turn his holidays into a memorable summer.

24 October: Sonnenallee
The Sonnenallee is a street in Berlin which was divided by the Berlin Wall. Sonnenallee is a 1999 comedy film about the life of 17-year-old Michael in communist East Germany (GDR) in the late 1970s. Michael spends his time with his friends listening to banned pop music, partying and trying to win over the heart of Miriam, who is dating a West Berlin boy.

31 October: The Reader (Der Vorleser)
(2008) Michael Berg is a German lawyer who, as a teenager, has an affair with an older woman, Hanna Schmitz. Later, Michael Berg meets Hanna again as one of the defendants in a war crimes trial stemming from her actions as a guard at a Nazi concentration camp. Michael realises that Hanna is keeping a personal secret which she believes is worse than her Nazi past.
German Supper & Conversation Group
Almost every Thursday* from 6pm in the ANU Engineering Theatre foyer.
(*the same Thursdays as the film nights)
All levels of German are welcome! (Even no German at all!)
Snacks provided.

German Filmfreunde
Almost every Thursday at 7pm in the ANU Engineering Theatre.
All films are shown in German with English subtitles.

8 August: Oh Boy!
This 2012 film chronicles one day and one night in the life of Niko, a young man who neither studies nor has a job. All day, intriguing events happen around him as he drifts aimlessly through contemporary Berlin whilst encountering a range of different characters along the way.

15 August: Berlin Calling
"Berlin Calling" is a 2008 tragicomedy directed by Hannes Stöhr and starring techno musician Paul Kalkbrenner. The movie depicts the events following DJ and producer Ickarus' institutionalisation for drug abuse.

22 August: Nosferatu the Vampyre (Nosferatu: Phantom der Nacht)
"Nosferatu the Vampyre" is a 1979 West German vampire film set primarily in 19th century Wismar (Germany) and Transylvania. It was conceived as a stylistic remake of the 1922 German Dracula adaptation "Nosferatu."

29 August: Head On (Gegen die Wand)
(1998) Cahit is a German Turk in his 40s who lives a miserable life plagued with drug and alcohol addiction. After crashing his car into a wall, he meets another German Turk, Sibel, who attempted suicide to escape her family's ultra-conservatism. Sibel asks Cahit to marry her so that she can move out of home.

5 September: Metropolis
"Metropolis" is a 1927 German expressionist epic science-fiction film that is regarded as a pioneer work of science fiction movies, as it is the first feature length movie of the genre. Metropolis is set in a futuristic urban dystopia and follows the attempts of Freder, the wealthy son of the city's ruler, and Maria to overcome the vast gulf separating the classist nature of their city.

15 August: Berlin Calling
"Berlin Calling" is a 2008 tragicomedy directed by Hannes Stöhr and starring techno musician Paul Kalkbrenner. The movie depicts the events following DJ and producer Ickarus' institutionalisation for drug abuse.

26 September: The Murderers are Among Us (Die Mörder sind unter uns)
(1946) When Susanne Wallner returns home from a concentration camp in 1945, she finds the city of Berlin in total ruins. A traumatised and cynical surgeon Dr. Mertens occupies her apartment and refuses to leave. Dr. Mertens finds out that a neighbour ordered the execution of many innocent women and children.

3 October: Goodbye Lenin!
(2003) The film is set in 1990, and young Alex (Daniel Brühl) must protect his fragile mother from any significant shocks, which would be fatal for her. He must keep her from learning that her beloved nation of East Germany as she knew it has disappeared.